Update on WPRZ's Move to Culpeper!

Almost everything has been moved into our new offices! There is so much more room! We are especially blessed to have a large music and programming room now and a big conference/work room for gatherings, special projects and more! We hope to get internet sometime this week which we will be so grateful! We've been relying on our home internet connections in the meantime.

At this point everything has been moved from Baldwin Street except the main studio, the production room, and the satellite dish! Moving these things are major projects that involve so many technical issues! Please keep this final step in your prayers as it is now time to begin moving the actual broadcast facilities. We will all be so happy to begin broadcasting from East Davis Street!!

We're continuing to move boxes from various other places and getting them unpacked. We're getting some of the pictures on the walls now, got a refrigerator and microwave, a couple really nice rugs, and are getting used to getting our mail early (a really good thing), town trash pick up, having close neighbors, and walking a block or two to get to the elevator. Life in town is really different! We know God has a special purpose for this move and we can't wait to see what happens! We are here to serve... and as we all work together, we can do it well!! We are looking ahead with great expectations!!!

Thank you to everyone who has helped with this major move to the town of Culpeper! Thank you to Shirley and Ed Nicodemus, Cindie, Lizzie, and Tommy Foster, Justin Anderson, Don, Sook and Hanna Brock, Tracy Werner, Steven Buchanan and Jeffrey Nicodemus. And a special "Thank You" to Tom Boyd with Remax Realty for his help with countless details encountered as we get settled in our new space.

Don and Justin setting the couch in place in the wide hall near the room where the new studio will be.

What a great group! They moved all the big furniture from the other side of the 2nd floor to our side! Left to right starting in the back Tommy Foster and Justin Anderson. Second row, Don Brock, Cindie Foster, Sook Brock, and Kandy Flippo. On the floor, Hanna Brock and Lizzie Foster.

Ed Nicodemus and Garry Penix setting the CD racks in place in the new music and programming room. How nice it is going to be having everything in one large room.

Steve painting the newly cut window between the studio and the production room. Getting these two operational is the goal by September 1st.

A Very Special Thank You!!

Upcoming Specials!

Inciting Incidents

Friday, September 14th at 9:00 pm
Saturday, September 15th at 2:00 pm

This new Moody Radio special hosted by Chris Fabry addresses a problem many of us have witnessed, but do not understand why it's happening. A generation is leaving the Church! Believe it or not, it's happening. But are Millennials leaving because they reject the faith or because they're rejecting the faith they've seen? Through stories of real people featured in the book, "Inciting Incidents", this theatre of the mind experience guides listeners through several life-altering moments that could push them away or draw them closer to God.

Front Row Live!

Saturday, September 8th
8:00 to 10:00 pm

This live concert from Moody Radio features Ernie Haase + Signature Sound. Nicknamed "Ambassadors of Joy" this gospel quartet brings the message of hope and joy with unbridled energy to each performance.

Cindie Foster's Testimony for Baptism

Sunday, August 5th, 2012

Today I reflect on how my life has changed in the last year and its unrecognizable. In early Spring of 2011, I had hit an emotional all-time low. I couldn't find happiness in any area of my life and it seemed like everything I touched, I messed up. I was on my way to pick Lizzie from dance and having a crying, blubbing, PITY-FEST. I've always believed in the "story" of Jesus but I had never been a true follower. I cried out, "There is no God... or you'd be providing for me! If there is a God, why aren't you here for me when I need you... don't you love me?" I cursed, yelled and told what I thought was a fictitious God, how alone I felt.

Right about that time a car almost t-boned me forcing me into oncoming traffic where I quickly came to a stop, unharmed but jolted back to reality. My first reaction was to angrily get the license plate and I was SHOCKED when I saw what it said: GODLVSU!!! Needless to say that was a turning point in my faith and life. An affirmation that not only is God REAL, but that He's LISTENING and HE LOVES ME!!

A couple days later, I accidentally found 88.1 WPRZ (a local Christian radio station) broadcasting Dr. David Jeremiah who was speaking right to my heart. WHAT IS THIS? CHURCH IN MY CAR? I don't go to church yet so how perfect is this to get 2 hours of ministries everyday in the privacy of my car during my commute. These were the 2 biggest Holy Spirit "magnets" dropped before me... pulling me IN. As I followed the many heavenly bread crumbs the Lord was leaving for me, I surrendered my life to HIM and was blessed to find my perfect Church home at Novum Baptist Church where I am now a PROUD member.

I have also felt drawn to volunteer at WPRZ, because that's where it all started for me, and I see myself spending a lot more time there in the near future. If I listed all the wonderful surprises, rewards, proofs and powerful moments the Lord has blessed me with... we'd be here all day. Oh... and that light at the end of the tunnel... I'm happy to share with you IT'S NOT A TRAIN!!!

I cannot stand in front of you and say my life is now perfect because it's not. My spirit is saved but my mind is not. I need God and His Word EVERY DAY to keep my mind focused. Now from my adversity and troubles I grow and get closer to the Lord, when before all I knew what to do was suffer. For the first time in my life I feel peace and can be content in almost every situation. More and more my comfort zones are being stripped away so NOTHING can hold me back. I may not have all the attributes of a perfect Christian but there is a transformation going on and it feels soooooo good. I strive to be obedient and serve Him and am so eager to see what the Lord's plan is for my future.

Thank you to all of my friends and family who love and support me and a special thank you to all those who teach me and help me learn, grow, forgive, serve, love, share, believe and have confidence. May God abundantly bless you all!

Thank You! To These Special Ministry Partners!
